

Responsible Sourcing Policy

Trade name(s): ECR Glassflake

Glassflake Ltd is focused on achieving and upholding the fundamental principles of responsible sourcing.

At Glassflake, we work with all of our suppliers and partners who share the same principles of responsible sourcing and across their supply chain.

ECR Glassflakes are manufactured in the UK using various mineral oxides sourced from approved suppliers within the EU and are not made from (recycled) glass that is collected using child labour. This ensures that they are fully compliant to the laws and regulations related to responsible sourcing. Glassflake Ltd reviews the accreditations and certifications of each of its suppliers on a routine basis.

Business is conducted lawfully and with integrity at all times, operations, sourcing, manufacture, distribution of products and the supply of services are conducted with the aim of protecting and preserving the environment.

Simultaneously, Glassflake is investing in new advanced technology with the aim to save energy, the expected energy saving is targeted at around 32%.
